

Contact: Derek Gallagher

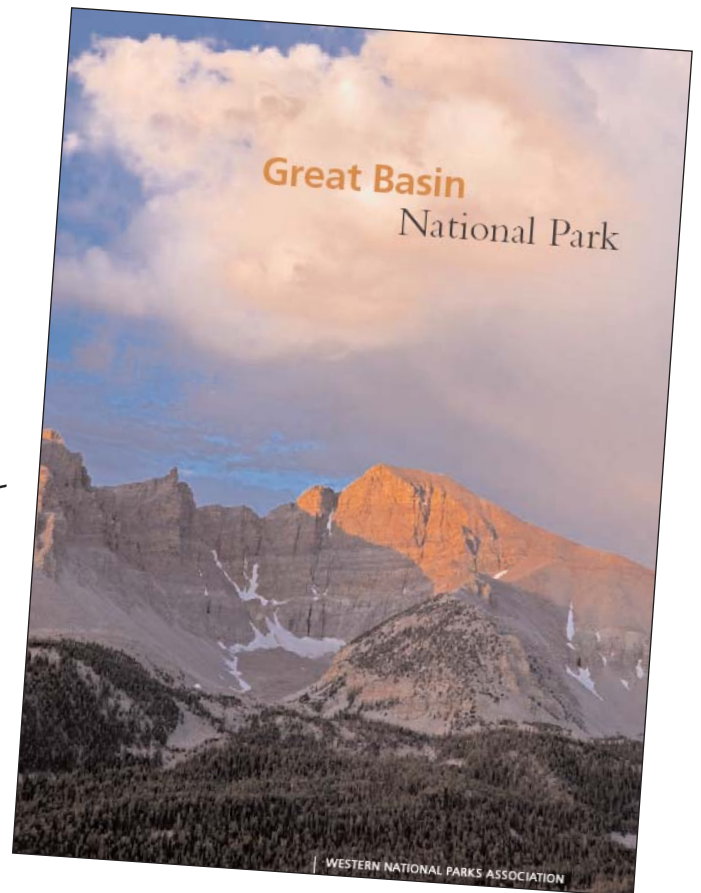

12880 N. Vistoso Village Dr.
Tucson, AZ 85755
Phone (520) 622-1999
Fax (520) 623-9519
derek@wnpa.org

Great Basin National Park

By Jeremy Schmidt

A little-known gem of a park lies nestled in the topography of northeastern Nevada. Great Basin National Park is home to a 13,000-foot peak, a rock glacier, groves of ancient bristlecone pines, limestone caves, and alpine creeks that tumble down canyons to the sagebrush desert below. Enveloped in remoteness, Great Basin offers other resources as well; open space and solitude, clean air, and star-filled skies. Learn about the natural and cultural history of this amazing place in Great Basin National Park. Introductory text and full-color photography throughout take you on a journey into this park.

Great Basin National Park

ISBN 10: 1-58369-090-5

ISBN 13: 978-158369-090-1

16 pages, 7 1/2 x 10 inches, saddlestitched, $4.95

Published by Western National Parks Association

Written by Jeremy Schmidt

www.wnpa.org