Montezuma Castle: Home of the Prehistoric Sinagua (DVD)

This award-winning film presents the story of the Sinagua people of northern Arizona's Verde River Valley. Includes first-person accounts of nineteenth-century explorers, plus glimpses of the interior of the cliffside dwellings preserved at Montezuma Castle National Historic Site, which is off-limits to visitors.

This DVD video features a high-quality digital transfer from the original film. Special features include scene-by-scene chapter access, English language subtitle option, and an Adobe ® PDF file of the film's narration accessible to DVD-ROM users.
