

THE NATIONAL PARKS STORE

Events January 2018

12880 N Vistoso Village Dr.
Tucson, AZ 85755

Open daily 10 AM–5 PM

520-622-6014

www.wnpa.org

Store Closed

January 1 for New Year's Day

Wednesday, January 3
12 PM & 2 PM

Presentation | Oro Valley: A Brief Historical Overview

Learn about the diverse mix of people who settled in Oro Valley in this presentation by Jim Williams, the current Oro Valley Historical Society president.

Saturday, January 6
10 AM–5 PM

Trunk Show | Hopi Katsinam

Katsina dolls, carved representations of Hopi deities, have captured the public imagination for decades. Enjoy a remarkable selection of katsina, or kachina, carvings from the finest Hopi artists. Talks about the history of this traditional Hopi art at 11 AM and 2 PM.

Wednesday, January 10
12 PM & 2 PM

Presentation | Diving and Underwater Archaeology with NPS

Charles "Butch" Farabee talks about how the National Park Service (NPS) uses divers for many jobs, including underwater archaeology. Farabee, a retired NPS park ranger and superintendent, has over 50 years of diving experience.

Saturday, January 13
10 AM–5 PM

Trunk Show | Hubbell Rugs & Jewelry

See hundreds of handcrafted Navajo rugs and fine silver and turquoise jewelry straight from Hubbell Trading Post, the oldest continuously operated trading post on the Navajo Nation. Join Navajo trader Edison Eskeets at 11 AM and 2 PM for lively stories about the history and design of these amazing works of art.

Wednesday, January 17
2 PM only

Presentation | John C. Frémont, Pathfinder of the American West

Join Jack Lasseter for a fascinating talk about the life of John C. Frémont, an early mapmaker and explorer of the American West.

Tickets are $5 and must be purchased in advance. Tickets are nonrefundable.

Saturday, January 20
12 PM only

Presentation | Audubon Lecture Series: What to Do When You Encounter Wildlife

Robin Motzer of Tucson Wildlife Center discusses how to peacefully coexist with wildlife and how best to talk to your neighbors about taking the same approach. Note: no animals will be present.

Wednesday, January 24
12 PM & 2 PM

Presentation | Visiting the Monuments of Washington, D.C.

It's always best to prepare for a trip, and Ken Scoville knows the best way to plan a visit to the National Mall in Washington, D.C. Make the most of your visit to the Mall using the information in Scoville's presentation.

Saturday, January 27 & Sunday,
January 28
10 AM–5 PM

Trunk Show | Oaxacan Woodcarvings

Award-winning Oaxacan artists Jacobo and Maria Angeles will show and sell their colorful and imaginative woodcarvings. They work together to create gorgeous carvings with Zapotec-inspired patterns. This show celebrates their dedication to Mexican folk art and creating sustainable artistry. Enjoy artist demonstrations throughout each day.

Wednesday, January 31
12 PM only

Presentation | Geology and the Ancestral Pueblo Migration

Author John Bezy talks about the Ancestral Puebloans and how geology and climate may have affected their decision to relocate.

Your purchases support parks

Western National Parks Association

celebrating
80 years

Please request a reservation by calling 520-622-6014 during business hours one week prior to the event. Events are free unless otherwise noted.